Student Advisory Council 2014-15

Mission
Student Advisory Council (SAC) is a credible and sought-after resource that represents the voice and sentiment of the BYU student body. SAC collaborates with BYU students and administration to improve the overall BYU student experience.

Objectives
- Strengthen student voice- students’ ideas and expressed opinions are acknowledged, advocated for, and acted upon as a result of student outreach, inclusive collaboration, meaningful research, and civil discourse
- Increase student knowledge- students’ understanding is informed through research, policy study, and interactions with the BYU administration and students
- Impact student perspective- students’ viewpoints are enlightened as a result of dialogue and discourse with fellow students and BYU administrators

Student Responsibilities
- Serve on sub-committee and collaborate with team members to (1) represent an area of student interest and (2) research, collaborate with administrators on, and present a project intended to improve the overall student experience.
- Report to college and department contacts at least twice per semester
- Report to college councils or student groups at least twice per semester
- Meet with SAC vice president during the first month of the semester
- Complete assigned pre-surveys that will collect data for incoming presenters
- Complete assigned post-surveys that will provide feedback data for presenters
- Provide 3 hours of service with SAC or another associated campus council
- Class attendance

Student Requirements
- Ability to commit to SAC for the Fall 2014 and Winter 2015 semesters
- Be a daytime-continuing student
- Have Good academic standing
- Have Good Honor Code standing
- Register for Student Development 358R Section 006
  - 3 credits
  - All assignments are correlated with responsibilities outlined above
  - Variable credit and registration offerings are available upon request to match unique college/department/student needs
- Ability to commit to the Fall SAC retreat
  - Date & Time: September 26 at 5 pm to September 27 at 11 am
- Variable credit and registration offerings are available upon request to match unique college/department/student needs